REGISTRATION DEPARTMENT.

RECORD OF REFUSAL TO REGISTER.

To—The Registering Officers in Mysore, Circular Memorandum No. 6 of 1881—82, dated 31st March 1882.

A question having been raised by a Registering Officer with reference to Circular No. 7, dated 11th August 1880, the Inspector General of Registration has the honor to point out that in the case of documents executed by two or more persons, when registration is refused as respects one or more of the executants, the fact of such refusal should be recorded not only on the document but also in Book No. II in the usual way.

FILING OF MEMORANDA OR COPIES OF DOCUMENTS RECEIVED.

To—The Registering Officers, Mysore, Circular Memorandum No. 7 of 1881—82, dated 31st March 1882.

With reference to para 88 of the Registration Rules prescribing the manner in which memoranda or copies of registered documents received in the Registration Offices under Sections 64, 65, 66 and 67 should be filed, the Inspector General of Registration has the honor to explain that such memoranda or copies should be filed between the two blank pages following immediately after the entry of the document last registered. Any blank space remaining in the preceding page should be scored through, thus >< with the Registering Officer's signature. The two new blank pages occupied by the memo or copy should be similarly scored through from corner to corner and attested.

The printed numbers of the two pages should be repeated on the first and last pages of the copy or memo filed.

H. HUDSON,
Inspr. Genl. of Registration, Mysore.
